Gloucestershire v Derbyshire

Match Drawn

County Ground, Bristol
17 - 20 April 2016

Wayne Madsen & Chesney Hughes

Chesney Hughes scored 96 and 137 not out as Derbyshire and Gloucestershire drew at Bristol.

Hughes hit 96 in a Derbyshire first innings which saw Wayne Madsen top-score with 150. Gloucestershire managed to secure a 119-run first-innings lead as they hit 563 thanks to centuries from Chris Dent (180) and Liam Norwell (102).

The game ended in a draw, despite the best efforts of Hughes and Hamish Rutherford on the final day, hitting 137 not out and 78 respectively.

Derbyshire started their 2016 campaign at Bristol with Hamish Rutherford winning the toss and deciding to bat first.

Ben Slater was out soon after lunch on the first day before New Zealand's Rutherford fell quickly. Madsen and Hughes steadied the scoring, before the latter was dismissed attempting a pull over square leg.

On the second morning, Derbyshire lost three wickets to slip to 266 for six before Madsen reached his century. Tom Poynton recorded his first fifty for three seasons and Madsen a 150 as Derbyshire were bowled out for 444.

The Gloucestershire reply started well before Bancroft left a straight one from Shiv Thakor. Norwell reached his first hundred in any class of cricket before he was eventually dismissed by Hughes.

Hamish Marshall and Noema-Barnett both passed fifty, while Howell hit four sixes in his 41. Dent was eventually bowled by Hughes who took three wickets in a first-class innings for the first time.

Luke Fletcher, on a month's loan from Nottinghamshire, and Andy Carter both took their first wickets for Derbyshire.

Returning to bat and 119 runs behind, Derbyshire lost Slater early on. Rutherford settled and put on a 174 run partnership with Hughes.

Rutherford was caught at extra cover whilst Hughes finished on 137 not out as the game ended in a draw.

Derbyshire v Glamorgan Match Drawn

The 3aaa County Ground, Derby
24 - 27 April 2016

Tony Palladino

Derbyshire draw with Glamorgan in their first home Specsavers County Championship match of 2016.

Tony Palladino secured his 10th first-class five-wicket haul for the club, whilst Wayne Madsen continued his fine form with the bat to score 97.

Glamorgan batted first and the top order were made to work hard, before Will Bragg reached a century, supported by Cooke and Donald.

On the second morning three wickets fell while only six runs were added, but the last pair added 63 for the tenth wicket. Tony Palladino had been the pick of the bowlers with the twelfth five-wicket haul of his career.

Derbyshire's reply was interrupted by a sharp shower after only four balls had been bowled, but Ben Slater and Chesney Hughes saw them through to lunch on 23 for no wicket.

Two wickets fell during the next ten overs and this brought together Slater and Wayne Madsen. Between them they took the score to 98 for two before bad light and rain finished play for the day.

Derbyshire progressed to 189 for four before lunch on the third day, with Ben Slater reaching 62.

The home side continued to make good progress in the afternoon, with Madsen making 97 in a rain affected afternoon's play.

Tom Poynton and Andy Carter added a brisk 42 in only four overs before Derbyshire were dismissed for 345.

Glamorgan started their second innings and Luke Fletcher bowled an accurate ten-over spell during which he bowled Kettleborough. Wes Durston trapped Bragg before lunch which was taken with Glamorgan on 47 for two.

Play continued for forty-five minutes after the interval, but then play was suspended for bad light followed by a hailstorm and snow.

Shortly after the umpires and captains agreed that there was little chance of concluding the match which ended in a draw.

DERBYSHIRE County Cricket Club First Class Season 2016

Northamptonshire v Derbyshire

Match Drawn

County Ground, Northampton

1 - 4 May 2016

Billy Godleman

Chesney Hughes hit his second unbeaten century of the season to take his run tally to 400 and secure a draw against Northamptonshire at Wantage Road.

New skipper Godleman, returning from injury to play his first match of the season, elected to bat first. Both openers fell before lunch to smart wicket-keeping by Rossington and Derbyshire slipped to 161 for seven in the afternoon.

Tony Palladino and Shiv Thakor, unbeaten on 83, rebuilt the innings, the visitors bowled out for 324.

Northamptonshire reached 65 for no wicket at lunch on the second day, before play was abandoned due to the conditions.

They continued on the third morning until the opening partnership had reached 109 at which point the in-form Duckett fell to Carter. There followed another stand for the second wicket which fell at 191.

205 for two became 208 for five as the Derbyshire bowlers found a way back into the game. Rory Kleinveldt launched an attack which took him to fifty from only 20 balls (9 fours; 1 six). He took his partnership with Levi to 140 in 20 overs, before falling on 97.

Northamptonshire continued to bat on the fourth morning and their innings eventually closed on 470 two balls after Levi had reached his hundred from 127 balls.

Derbyshire defended well against an attacking field as Northamptonshire pushed for the victory on the final morning. The openers saw Derbyshire through to lunch, reaching 59 without loss.

Godleman and Hughes played watchfully towards the tea interval with both players passing their fifties - Hughes from 88 balls, Godleman from 110 balls.

The weather-affected game ended in a draw with Northamptonshire taking thirteen points and Derbyshire ten.

Derbyshire v Sussex Match Drawn

The 3aaa County Ground, Derby
8 - 11 May 2016

Chesney Hughes scored an unbeaten half-century and Shiv Thakor claimed three wickets in a heavily rain-affected draw with Sussex at The 3aaa County Ground.

Hughes' fourth score of 50 or more of the season ensured that Derbyshire were able to pick up their fourth draw of the season after rain heavily affected the final two days of the fixture.

The visitors earlier secured a first-innings lead of 277, declaring on 468-5 after Ed Joyce hit his highest first-class score of 250.

Derbyshire battled their way to 73 for one at lunch on the first day, with Hughes the only victim, caught by the wicket-keeper from a leg-glance.

Derbyshire fell to 78 for three shortly after lunch and despite good work from Shiv Thakor and Tony Palladino, the hosts were bowled out for 191.

The Sussex reply was led by Ed Joyce and Luke Wells, the latter making 116 from 266 balls before being caught at slip by Madsen off Wes Durston.

Thakor then took two wickets, the first of them just in time to earn his team a bowling point, and Durston eventually trapped Joyce after he had recorded a career-best 250 from 327 balls (34 fours and 2 sixes).

Sussex played the remaining overs of the day with care as they finished on 468 for five, a lead of 277 runs.

There was no cricket on the third day as persistent downpours led the umpires to abandon play shortly after lunch.

The fourth morning was also washed out but the weather cleared and play was able to start at 2.30pm with a possible fifty one overs remaining.

Hughes and Godleman stayed together until tea, by which time Hughes had reached his fifty from 73 balls (8 fours).

Two wickets fell shortly after the tea interval, but Hughes and Wayne Madsen remained until bad light brought the match to a close.

DERBYSHIRE County Cricket Club First Class Season 2016

Essex v Derbyshire

Match Draw

The Essex County Ground, Chelmsford
15 - 18 May 2016

Shiv Thakor

Shiv Thakor claimed career-best bowling figures as Derbyshire drew with Essex at Chelmsford.

Nick Browne (255) and Ravi Bopara (5-49) also claimed career-bests, but a defiant second innings display from the visitors ensured a fifth successive draw for Derbyshire.

The Essex opening batsmen started briskly but soon fell to 70-2. Browne and Bopara stabilised the innings and then Dan Lawrence stayed with Brown until close, taken at 284-3.

Lawrence was out to Chesney Hughes after reaching his hundred from 181 balls and sharing a stand of 210 for the fourth wicket.

Browne was dismissed for a career-best 255 from 445 balls (34 fours and 1 six). Shiv Thakor finished with a career-best 4-107 from his 26.4 overs.

In the Derbyshire reply, Godleman and Hughes were both bowled after looking well-set. Hamish Rutherford and Madsen saw out the rest of the day when Derbyshire had reached 124-2.

On the third morning Derbyshire lost three wickets in the pre-lunch session and then three more followed in the first four overs after the interval.

Ravi Bopara took five wickets in an innings for only the second time in his career as Derbyshire were dismissed for 280.

Essex enforced the follow-on and Godleman and Hughes again started well until Hughes was forced to retire with the score on 76.

Rutherford joined his captain and they added a further 60 runs in 13 overs before Godleman was bowled for 75.

Rutherford and night-watchman Taylor took their partnership to fifty, before Taylor was out and then Hughes returned to share another fifty partnership with Rutherford. Rutherford completed his own fifty before he was caught.

Rain affected Derbyshire's reply throughout the third and fourth day, with the game ending in a draw shortly after the visitors overcame their run deficit. Hughes finished with an unbeaten 66.

DERBYSHIRE County Cricket Club First Class Season 2016

Derbyshire v Kent

Kent won by 7 wickets

The 3aaa County Ground, Derby
22 - 25 May 2016

Wayne Madsen

Derbyshire lost to Kent by seven wickets despite centuries from Wayne Madsen and Shiv Thakor.

Derbyshire posted an impressive 492 from their first innings despite being 35-3 on the first day.

Madsen and Thakor steadied the innings, scoring 103 and 130 respectively, helped by a solid 96 from Neil Broom.

Sean Dickson led the Kent reply, scoring 207 as the visitors finished on 412 all out from 126 overs.

Excellent spells of bowling from James Tredwell and Calum Haggett reduced Derbyshire to 94 all out in their second innings, with Madsen top-scoring with 37.

Having been passed fit to bat, Billy Godleman could only make three before he was lbw to Tredwell. In the following over, Tom Poynton was lbw to Haggett without scoring.

Shiv Thakor and Matt Critchley offered a degree of resistance but Thakor was bowled by a Tredwell beauty for 10 and Critchley was Haggett's third lbw victim for 18.

The final wicket to fall was that of Ben Cotton who was also lbw to Haggett for a single as the hosts were bowled out for 94 to leave Kent requiring 175 for victory. Tredwell finished with 4-45, whilst Haggett claimed 4-15.

The visitors began their chase confidently as Daniel Bell-Drummond defied the Derbyshire attack throughout the afternoon.

Tom Taylor (1-22), Tony Palladino (1-31) and Chesney Hughes (1-11) all picked up one wicket apiece but Kent made reasonably light work of the chase.

Bell-Drummond played positively to finish on 80 not out from 99 balls, having hit 10 fours and a six, as Kent won by seven wickets.

Sussex v Derbyshire

Sussex won by 10 wickets

The 1st Central County Ground, Hove
28 - 31 May 2016

Shiv Thakor

Ed Joyce and Luke Wells both hit centuries as Sussex claimed victory by 10 wickets in the Specsavers County Championship fixture at Hove.

Sussex won the toss and chose to field first on a rain affected first day. Chesney Hughes was dismissed by the second ball of the innings, before the majority of the Derbyshire middle order fell after getting starts.

Shiv Thakor and Tom Taylor played well as they added forty four for the eighth wicket in eight overs, but two wickets in the penultimate over of the day and one in the fourth of the following morning, left Derbyshire 150 all out.

Sussex reached 91-0 at lunch before Wayne Madsen took the wicket of Nash. Joyce and Wells added a further 135 for the second wicket as they both completed centuries.

Madsen dismissed Joyce and Tom Taylor managed to find the edge of Ross Taylor's bat, with Sussex finishing on 342-4 with a lead of 192 with two days' play to go.

Ben Brown pressed on and he was able to declare after his team had added 105 in 82 minutes.

Despite determined resistance Derbyshire lost wickets at regular intervals to the Sussex seam attack with Godleman falling in the last over before tea.

Thakor and Poynton coped well before a moment of misjudgement led to Poynton's run-out.

Thakor played another competent and confident innings, but was out to a rising delivering for 81 from 102 balls.

Palladino and Cotton added 51 in five overs for the last wicket before Cotton was bowled.

Sussex returned to bat, requiring 11 runs to win, which they reached without the loss of any wickets.

Derbyshire v Worcestershire Match Drawn

The 3aaa County Ground, Derby
20 - 23 June 2016

Billy Godleman

Derbyshire were denied their first victory of the Specsavers County Championship campaign by some resolute Worcestershire batting.

Chasing victory on the final day, Ben Cotton added 2-34 to his four wickets from the first innings, whilst debutant Will Davis took 2-87.

But the hosts were unable to take the nine wickets they needed to beat Worcestershire on Day Four at The 3aaa County Ground.

Billy Godleman and Wayne Madsen had put the hosts in an excellent position after the first innings, scoring 204 and 109 respectively as Derbyshire reached 467-5 declared.

Good bowling from Cotton and Tony Palladino, with support from Will Davis and Chesney Hughes, saw Worcestershire bowled out for 164.

Following on, Worcestershire needed 279 to avoid defeat. Tony Palladino (1-32) trapped Brett D'Oliveira (14) lbw with just the sixth delivery of the fourth day for the Derbyshire bowler's fifth wicket of the match.

Barnard, deployed as a nightwatchman at the end of the previous day's play, continued to chalk up the runs and frustrate the Derbyshire bowlers up to lunch – Clarke on 44 and Barnard 53.

Davis (2-85), managed to break up the 146 run partnership – Clarke was gone for 63 at 170-3 and was then swiftly followed by the equally impressive Barnard for 73 to the same bowler.

The new pairing of Alexei Kervezee (41) and Tom Kohler-Cadmores (48) continued to frustrate the hosts, taking their side to 227-4 at tea before Cotton, after his first innings performance, again found himself in the thick of the action after the restart.

Tom Poynton caught Kervezee down the leg-side off the bowling of Cotton, before the Derbyshire bowler, this time at slip, caught Kohler-Cadmores off Chesney Hughes, to leave Worcestershire 276-6.

That was the final wicket of the match though as Ross Whiteley (9*) and Ben Cox (13*) played out the final overs of the day.

Kent v Derbyshire

Match Draw

Spitfire Ground, Canterbury
26 - 29 June 2016

Wayne Madsen

Derbyshire secured their second successive draw in the Specsavers County Championship after resilient Kent batting meant the visitors' victory charge was halted on the final day.

John Sadler's men went into Day Four needing 10 wickets for victory and were encouraged by an early dismissal.

But careful batting from half-centurions Tom Latham, Joe Denly and Sam Northeast took the hosts beyond parity.

Tony Palladino took four wickets from his 29 over spell in the first innings and he was well supported by the young Will Davis who took three wickets. Sam Northeast batted well as Kent posted 379 all out, top-scoring with 191.

The Derbyshire reply was led by Wayne Madsen and Shiv Thakor, both scoring centuries as the visitors declared on 574-9. Hamish Rutherford and Chesney Hughes were also strong contributors, both hitting half-centuries.

In a rain affected match, Kent began the final day 163 runs behind. The visitors got an early breakthrough when Ben Cotton found extra pace and bounce to entice Sean Dickson into a feathered edge to the 'keeper on 22.

That would be the only wicket of the morning, as Latham and Denly batted sensibly to take lunch on 134-1, having added 95 for the second wicket.

The partnership ended on 103 when Wayne Madsen had Latham caught by substitute fielder Rob Hemmings at mid-wicket, having made 74.

Denly was joined by first-innings centurion Northeast and the pair put on 93 to take their side up to and beyond parity before the former was bowled by Neil Broom as the Kiwi batsman picked up his first wicket for Derbyshire.

By 4pm, the rain had increased sufficiently for the umpires to conclude there would be no more play. Derbyshire took home 12 points, whilst Kent took 10.

DERBYSHIRE County Cricket Club First Class Season 2016

Derbyshire v Northamptonshire Match Abandoned

Queen's Park, Chesterfield
4 - 7 July 2016

No teams announced.

Toss: No toss made

Umpires: ID Blackwell, NA Mallender

Points: Derbyshire 5; Northamptonshire 5

The Specsavers County Championship match between Derbyshire and Northamptonshire at Queen's Park was abandoned without a ball bowled after the bowlers' run-ups were deemed unsafe.

Following exceptional levels of rain in the weeks leading up to the Custom Solar Chesterfield Festival of Cricket, in association with Chesterfield Borough Council, the outfield was deemed too wet for play.

No play was possible on the first two days, with the run-ups at both ends deemed too wet and unsafe for play.

On the morning of Day Three, bowlers from either side practiced their run-ups at the Lake End of Queen's Park but, after it was clear that the ground was moving significantly underfoot, the umpires deemed the outfield unsuitable and the day's play was abandoned.

The umpires conducted a further inspection at 3pm on Day Three, in order to determine whether or not play could go ahead on the final day.

The decision was made that the run-ups would not improve significantly enough for the ground to be made safe, and the match was abandoned.

Glamorgan v Derbyshire

Glamorgan won by 4 wickets

Colwyn Bay

17 - 20 July 2016

Will Davis

20-year-old Will Davis took career-best figures of 7-146 as Derbyshire were narrowly beaten by Glamorgan.

Davis' seven came as Glamorgan amassed 518 in their first innings with Aneurin Donald scoring the equal-fastest double-century in first-class history.

In reply, Derbyshire were dismissed for 177 and asked to follow-on. They reached 536 all out, with Chesney Hughes and Billy Godleman hitting tons.

The hosts were able to chase down 196 to win in the final two sessions of the match.

Donald reached his century from 80 balls and the record-equalling double-hundred soon after as Glamorgan piled on the runs in their first innings.

Will Davis bowled with pace and took his first first-class five-wicket haul before finishing with a career-best 7-146.

Hamish Rutherford and Billy Godleman added 52 for the first wicket, but then four wickets fell in the space of eight overs. The wickets continued to tumble and Harvey Hosein was the last man standing with an undefeated 27.

Derbyshire were asked to follow on 341 runs behind. Hosein opened the innings and compiled 26 before he was caught. Hughes helped Rutherford to see out the second day with Derbyshire on 78-1 after 33 overs.

Hughes reached his century and was supported by knocks from Wayne Madsen, Godleman and Matt Critchley.

Godleman and Critchley continued their resistance before Godleman was caught down the leg-side as he only managed to edge an attempted hook.

He had passed his hundred from 149 balls with 11 fours and a six. Four wickets fell for 40 runs, leaving Glamorgan 196 to win.

Derbyshire took four quick wickets at the start of the Glamorgan innings, but Jacques Rudolph played watchfully while Lloyd and Meschede played their shots boundaries to take Glamorgan home with four wickets to spare.

Leicestershire v Derbyshire

Match Draw
Fischer County Ground, Leicester
4 - 7 August 2016

Wayne Madsen

Derbyshire shared the spoils with their Leicestershire opponents in a thrilling draw at Grace Road.

The home side won the toss and decided to bat first, Paul Horton scoring 42 following the early dismissal of Angus Robson.

Horton put on an 89 run partnership with Neil Dexter and Niall O'Brien chipped in with 40 before Ned Eckersley played the knock of the innings, scoring 117 before he was dismissed by Callum Parkinson.

Leicestershire were dismissed for 380 as Parkinson took four wickets. The Derbyshire reply stuttered at the start, with three wickets falling for 40 runs.

Wayne Madsen and Neil Broom rebuilt the innings, scoring 76 and 30 respectively. Shiv Thakor was dismissed after facing just three balls, bringing Alex Hughes to the crease.

Hughes made a solid 48, with support from Alex Mellor (27) and Tom Milnes (24). A tenth wicket stand of 73 between Tony Palladino and Parkinson led Derbyshire to 362, just 18 runs behind.

Palladino and Milnes reduced the hosts to 1-2 inside the second over of their reply.

Cosgrove and Mark Pettini led the Leicestershire fightback before the in-form Eckersley hit his second century of the match (104).

The hosts declared on 294-9, hoping for a flurry of Derbyshire wickets to secure the win.

Billy Godleman fell to his first ball and Chesney Hughes was dismissed not long after. Ben Slater made a careful 24 before Madsen settled to the task at hand, finishing on 42 not out.

He was ably assisted by Thakor, who also remained at the close of play, the game finishing in a draw with both teams taking 11 points.

DERBYSHIRE County Cricket Club First Class Season 2016

Derbyshire v Essex Essex won by an innings and 62 runs The 3aaa County Ground, Derby 13 - 16 August 2016

Tom Milnes

Derbyshire lost to Essex in the Specsavers County Championship clash at The 3aaa County Ground.

Nick Browne scored 229 not out in the visitors' first innings as Essex claimed victory by an innings and 62 runs.

Browne carried his bat and was assisted by Tom Westley (72) and Ryan ten Doeschate (60) as Essex posted 530-9 declared.

Tom Milnes claimed his first five-wicket haul in County Championship cricket, finishing with six wickets for 93 runs.

The Derbyshire first innings reply struggled to get going as Ben Slater was dismissed in the first over. Alex Mellor top scored for Derbyshire, hitting 44 from 81 balls before he was caught by Ben Foster from the bowling of Graham Napier.

Neil Broom and Matt Critchley chipped in with scores of 31 and 36 respectively, whilst Charlie Macdonnell scored 21 on his County Championship debut.

Derbyshire were eventually dismissed for 165 and were asked to follow-on, 365 runs behind the Essex total.

Billy Godleman top-scored with 100 from 154 balls, but with wickets falling at regular intervals, the hosts fell 62 runs short of forcing Essex to bat again.

Alex Hughes made 23 from 99 balls but his watchful innings was ended by debutant Paul Walter.

Wayne Madsen made 37, whilst Macdonnell was there at the end of the innings on 35 not out.

Critchley reached 43 in quick-time, hitting eight boundaries in his 52 balls.

The final three wickets fell for just 18 runs as Essex completed the victory.

Derbyshire v Gloucestershire Match Drawn

The 3aaa County Ground, Derby
31 August - 3 September 2016

Ben Slater

Derbyshire had to settle for a draw against Gloucestershire in the Specsavers County Championship at The 3aaa County Ground.

The hosts had 262 to defend on the final day but rain ended the day without a ball bowled.

On the opening day, Derbyshire won the toss and elected to bat with Ben Slater and Billy Godleman reached 91 for no loss. The Gloucestershire seam attack then struck twice in as many overs to reduce the hosts to 97-3 before lunch.

Slater and Neil Broom consolidated the innings to take the score to 175-3, before Broom edged Miles to the slip cordon for 36. Broom's dismissal sparked a flurry of wickets, whilst Slater remained and hit his way to his third first-class century.

Tom Milnes took an early wicket for Derbyshire as Gloucestershire began their innings 242 runs behind.

Milnes then took the second wicket just two deliveries into the second day, Tavare caught behind for 11.

Dent found himself closing in on a century but skied the ball to Godleman at mid-on, who held on to dismiss the opener for 94. Returning with the new ball, Tony Palladino took four quick wickets to reach his five wicket haul, the visitors eventually bowled out for 330.

With a deficit of 89, Ben Slater and Billy Godleman fell quickly as Derbyshire reached 16-2. Callum Parkinson and Alex Hughes resumed the innings on day three, putting on a 45-run partnership before the score slipped to 61-4.

Neil Broom and Hughes put on a near 100 run partnership as Hughes recorded his century from 173 balls.

Hughes reached a career-best 140 before Harvey Hosein and Tom Milnes both scored half-centuries.

However, the momentum was soon halted when the hosts lost their last three wickets for just 17 runs in the space of five overs – Derbyshire all-out for 360.

Gloucestershire began the 272 run chase for victory but persistent rain resulted in a draw.

DERBYSHIRE County Cricket Club First Class Season 2016

Derbyshire v Leicestershire Match Drawn

The 3aaa County Ground, Derby
12 - 15 September 2016

Will Davis

Derbyshire played out an enthralling draw with Leicestershire at The 3aaa County Ground.

Derbyshire, defending 346, needed to take 10 wickets on day four but could only manage eight, narrowly missing out on their maiden win of the Specsavers County Championship season.

Batting first, Derbyshire Captain Billy Godleman (9), was trapped on the pads by Clint McKay before Ben Slater (27) was caught off Charlie Shrek's first delivery.

Alex Hughes reached his 50 off 103 balls, before the hosts stumbled to 155-5.

Harvey Hosein became the anchor of the innings, securing his third first-class fifty. Last man in, Will Davis fell for 15, leaving Hosein not-out on a career-best 83.

In reply, Leicestershire lost three wickets before lunch, losing Robson (0), Horton (19) and Dexter (14) for 44 runs.

Will Davis struck twice in back-to-back overs as the visitors lost three wickets for one run. The right-arm paceman removed McKay (21), Mark Pettini (44) and Rob Sayer (0), Leicestershire finishing on 247 all out.

Derbyshire lost five wickets for 57 in their second innings. McKay removed Slater with the fourth ball of the innings before Goldeman played the paceman onto his stumps.

First innings half-century Hughes was runout for three but Madsen and Hosein came together and batted defensively to recover the innings, putting on a 143 run partnership.

Madsen, partnered by Tom Milnes (20), reached his fifth century of the season. Derbyshire then declared, setting the visitors 347 as Madsen ended on 134 not out.

Palladino took two wickets in first two overs, having Robson caught for naught before Dearden was dismissed for two.

Horton and Cosgrove rebuilt the innings for the visitors, adding 115 runs before Palladino removed Horton.

Cosgrove reached his century but eventually was caught off Parkinson (2-22).

Three quick wickets followed, leaving Derbyshire 23.5 overs in which to take two wickets. However, a ninth wicket stand between Sayer and Jones denied Derbyshire in their final home game of the season.

Worcestershire v Derbyshire

Worcestershire won by 9 wickets

New Road, Worcester
20 - 23 September 2016

Harvey Hosein

Derbyshire defeated in final game of the Specsavers County Championship season.

Harvey Hosein's maiden first-class century and another three-figure score from Wayne Madsen were not enough to prevent Worcestershire from recording a nine-wicket victory at New Road.

Derbyshire chose to field first and struck early as Tom Milnes dismissed Brett D'Oliveira for naught in the second over.

Daryl Mitchell and Joseph Clarke rebuilt the Worcestershire innings, the former compiling a patient knock off 67 from 144 balls. Clarke went on to top-score, hitting 194 with support from Joe Leach who also reached his century.

Ben Cotton picked up three wickets for Derbyshire are the hosts declared on 475-5.

Derbyshire's reply stuttered as they reached 68-5 before Hosein and debutant, Greg Cork, set about rebuilding the innings. Cork fell one short of his fifty, whilst the young wicketkeeper Hosein made 108, including 11 boundaries.

227 runs behind, Derbyshire were forced to follow-on. Ben Slater was dismissed without scoring before Billy Godleman and Alex Hughes quickly followed.

Madsen reached his century in under three hours, hitting 14 fours and one six. He was ably supported by Hosein, who returned to the crease with a half-century to go with his first innings score.

Tom Milnes struck 36 but once Hosein fell with the score at 261-8, the innings soon ended with Derbyshire bowled out for 266.

Requiring less than 50 runs for victory, Worcestershire looked to score quickly, with Mitchell scoring four boundaries in his 28 not out.

Milnes removed D'Oliveira without scoring for the second time in the match, but Tom Fell joined Mitchell to see out the nine-wicket victory inside ten overs.

Lancashire v Derbyshire Derbyshire won by 9 wickets Emirates Old Trafford, Manchester 21 May 2016

Toss: Derbyshire won the toss and decided to field
Umpires: RJ Evans, RA Kettleborough

Derbyshire Falcons began their 2016 NatWest T20 Blast campaign with a nine-wicket win over holders Lancashire Lightning.

Rutherford hit a dominant 71 off 40 balls, including three sixes and six fours, as the Falcons chased down their 132 victory target with 33 balls to spare.

The target had been set after a fine all-round performance in the field. Making his Derbyshire bow, Jimmy Neesham took 2-38 as the hosts were restricted to 131-7 from 19 overs.

Northamptonshire v Derbyshire Northamptonshire won by 3 wickets County Ground, Northampton 27 May 2016

Toss: Northamptonshire won the toss and decided to field
Umpires: NL Bainton, GD Lloyd

Derbyshire Falcons scored 195-7 from their 20 overs, but Northants Steelbacks narrowly came out on top, chasing down their target with one ball to spare.

Wes Durston and Chesney Hughes dominated large parts of the scoring for the Falcons, scoring 47 and 46 respectively, before Tom Poynton hit an unbeaten 37 to set Northants 196 to win.

In a chase that ebbed and flowed, the hosts ultimately came out victorious, despite Andy Carter claiming 3-34 and Matt Critchley taking 2-19, as Richard Levi's destructive 58 did much of the damage for the Steelbacks.

Derbyshire v Leicestershire Derbyshire won by 4 wickets The 3aaa County Ground, Derby 3 June 2016

Toss: Derbyshire won the toss and decided to field
Umpires: DJ Millns, SJ O'Shaughnessy

Jimmy Neesham

Derbyshire Falcons produced a fine all-round performance to defeat Leicestershire Foxes by four wickets at The 3aaa County Ground.

Jimmy Neesham and Shiv Thakor starred with both bat and ball, the former claiming 3-26 and hitting 29 not out, and the latter taking career-best figures of 3-17 before finishing 14 not out as the Falcons successfully chased down 121.

Having been put in to bat, the visitors were bowled out for 120 by the Derbyshire attack, with one wicket apiece for Alex Hughes, Wayne Madsen and Matt Critchley.

Nottinghamshire v Derbyshire Match Abandoned Trent Bridge, Nottingham 10 June 2016

Toss: No toss made
Umpires: PJ Hartley, NA Mallender

Heavy rain in the East Midlands caused the abandonment of the NatWest T20 Blast fixture between Derbyshire Falcons and Notts Outlaws at Trent Bridge, without a ball bowled.

The weather had deteriorated long before the scheduled 7.15pm start and umpires Peter Hartley and Neil Mallender had little option but to call off the keenly-anticipated local derby.

The abandonment means both sides claim one point apiece, taking the Falcons on to five points and Notts to three, each having now completed four matches.

No teams announced.

Derbyshire v Birmingham Bears Birmingham won by 4 wickets The 3aaa County Ground, Derby 17 June 2016

Toss: Warwickshire won the toss and decided to field
Umpires: MA Gough, MJ Saggers

Derbyshire Falcons were beaten by Birmingham Bears off the final ball in a close-fought encounter.

The visitors needed to find 142 to win and a late glut of wickets by the Falcons bowlers slowed down the run chase, but Ateeq Javid hit the final ball for four as the Bears grabbed a last-gasp victory.

Derbyshire managed to post 141-7 from their 20 overs, thanks largely to a partnership of 57 between Wayne Madsen and Hamish Rutherford who hit 38 and 33.

Yorkshire v Derbyshire Yorkshire won by 1 run (D/L) Headingley, Leeds 19 June 2016

Toss: Yorkshire won the toss and decided to field
Umpires: RJ Bailey, DJ Millns

Derbyshire Falcons were narrowly beaten by one run via the Duckworth-Lewis method by Yorkshire Vikings at Headingley.

The Falcons posted 153-9 batting first with Shiv Thakor top-scoring with 30 as part of an important middle-over partnership with Jimmy Neesham who hit 29.

In reply, Yorkshire reached 67-3 after nine overs when rain arrived. The match was abandoned at 5.30pm, with the Vikings securing victory by virtue of being one run ahead of the Duckworth/Lewis par score for the over.

Wayne Madsen

Wayne Madsen and Chesney Hughes shared a 97-run stand as Derbyshire chased down 185 to beat Worcestershire Rapids at New Road.

Madsen top-scored with an unbeaten 59 and Chesney Hughes struck 43 not out as the pair saw the Falcons from 91-3 to their victory target with seven balls to spare.

This after Alex Hughes (3-23) had returned career-best figures, before a late onslaught from Ben Cox (59 not out) and Matt Henry (35 not out) helped the Rapids post 185-7.

Derbyshire v Northamptonshire
Match Abandoned
Queen's Park, Chesterfield
3 July 2016

No teams announced.

Toss: No toss made
Umpires: NGB Cook, NA Mallender

The NatWest T20 Blast match between Derbyshire Falcons and Northants Steelbacks at Queen's Park, Chesterfield, was abandoned without a ball bowled due to a waterlogged outfield.

The ground took on a vast amount of water in the days leading up to the match and, despite a dry match day and positive forecast, the umpires deemed that the outfield was too wet for the fixture to take place.

Neil Broom

59 from Neil Broom and an explosive 45 from Jimmy Neesham were not enough for Derbyshire as they went down by nine wickets to Leicestershire Foxes.

The Falcons were asked to bat first, and set their hosts 159 to win. Broom's 59 came from 39 balls, whilst Neesham faced just 23 deliveries for his 45.

The hosts made light work of the target with opening pair Mark Pettini and Mark Cosgrove smashing quick-fire half-centuries during a century opening stand that helped their side to victory within 16 overs.

Hamish Rutherford

Derbyshire were defeated by Yorkshire Vikings by just a single run in the NatWest T20 Blast at The 3aaa County Ground.

After Kane Williamson had led the way for Yorkshire, scoring 65 as they posted 166-6 batting first, knocks of 44, 37 and 35 by Hamish Rutherford, Neil Broom and Chesney Hughes respectively edged the Falcons close, but astute bowling by spin duo Adil Rashid (3-20) and Azeem Rafiq (1-28) meant the visitors came out on top.

Matt Critchley

Career-best figures of 4-35 by Jimmy Neesham helped Derbyshire Falcons secure a six-wicket victory over the Lancashire Lightning at The 3aaa County Ground.

Hamish Rutherford hit 47, whilst Wes Durston hit 51 off 34 balls as the hosts successfully chased down 168 to win.

The target had been set after the Lightning amassed 167-9 from their 20 overs, after Alviro Petersen had whacked 79 for them, before Neesham took control in the final over when four wickets fell, three to Neesham and a run out.

Shiv Thakor

A career-best 3-36 from Matt Critchley, and fifties from Wayne Madsen and Hamish Rutherford, helped Derbyshire beat Worcestershire Rapids by 29 runs at The 3aaa County Ground.

Rutherford top scored with an impressive 64, while Madsen hit 50 not out, as Derbyshire posted 192-5 off their 20 overs.

Critchley then returned his best Twenty20 figures, while Shiv Thakor (2-29) and Ben Cotton (2-24) both claimed two apiece as the Rapids were dismissed for 163 in the 18th over.

Neil Broom

Neil Broom top scored with 68 off 43 balls, but a record stand between Mark Stoneman and Calum MacLeod helped Durham to victory to end Derbyshire's hopes of a quarter-final spot.

The Durham innings was built around the 141-run stand between Stoneman (82 not out) and MacLeod (83), as the hosts posted an imposing 193-2.

The Falcons fought all the way until the final over, with Broom leading the way with a half-century and Wes Durston hitting 44, but it wasn't enough as Derbyshire closed on 180-9, with the Jets winning by 13 runs.

Hamish Rutherford

Hamish Rutherford struck a 74-ball century as Derbyshire got the 2016 Royal London One-Day Cup campaign off to a winning start versus Worcestershire.

Rutherford (104) shared a century stand with Billy Godleman (61), before Wayne Madsen (69 not out) and Neil Broom (45 not out) created a century partnership of their own to take the Falcons to their target of 296 to win by seven wickets with 11 balls to spare.

The chase had been set after Derbyshire bowled their hosts out for 295, with Cotton claiming career-best figures of 4-43.

Ben Slater

Ben Slater's first List A century led Derbyshire to a seven-wicket victory over Durham, as the Falcons earned back-to-back one-day wins.

Slater's (119) maiden century in white-ball cricket led the way as the hosts chased down 216, with Billy Godleman and Wayne Madsen adding 44 and 21 not out respectively.

Having chosen to bowl first, the hosts attack reduced the visitors to 75-7, before a hundred from Ryan Pringle (125) meant that Durham got up to 216 all out, despite 3-36 from Shiv Thakor and 3-59 from Andy Carter.

Just one over was bowled in the Royal London One-Day Cup fixture between Derbyshire Falcons and Yorkshire Vikings before heavy rain caused the match to be abandoned.

After a delayed start at 11.15am, Tim Bresnan bowled one over for the visitors who had earlier chose to field first, before the players were forced off at Queen's Park.

The heavy rain continued and the umpires concluded at 12.45pm that the match would be abandoned, with both sides taking one point each.

No teams announced.

Toss: No toss made
Umpires: BV Taylor, AG Wharf

The Royal London One-Day Cup fixture between Derbyshire and Warwickshire at Edgbaston was abandoned without a ball bowled.

Heavy rain over Birmingham over the last few days meant that the outfield at Edgbaston was extremely wet and intermittent showers throughout the day left the umpires with no other choice than to abandon the match at 2pm.

Shiv Thakor

Shiv Thakor claimed three wickets and Ben Slater hit 51, but Notts Outlaws claimed victory in the Royal London One-Day Cup fixture at Welbeck Colliery.

The hosts had set their visitors 341 to win after a century from Riki Wessels and a quick-fire 59 from Captain Chris Read, despite Thakor's 3-78 and a further four wickets shared between the other bowlers.

In reply, Derbyshire were dismissed for 275 with Slater top-scoring on 51, and both Matt Critchley and Harvey Hosein hitting career-best scores of 43 and 40 respectively, as Notts ran out winners by 65 runs.

Billy Godleman

A standout knock of 91 by Billy Godleman was not enough to stop Derbyshire falling to defeat at the hands of Lancashire in the Royal London One-Day Cup.

The Falcons fell 27 runs short of victory after Liam Livingstone had led the way for Lancashire batting first, falling two runs off his maiden List A century as they posted 281-8 from their allotted overs.

In reply, Hamish Rutherford's 47 aided Godleman in getting Derbyshire into a reasonable position midway through the chase, but wickets fell at regular intervals in the remaining overs and the Falcons were restricted to 254-9.

Ben Slater

Ben Slater hit a record-breaking 148 not out, but it wasn't enough as Northants Steelbacks claimed victory at Wantage Road.

Slater hit the highest score by a Derbyshire batsman against a first-class county in List A cricket to carry his bat and help his side post 272-7.

But the Steelbacks' opening pair of Ben Duckett and Josh Cobb put their side in control, hitting 70 and 88 respectively, as the hosts chased down the total with eight overs remaining to claim victory by seven wickets.

Ben Slater

90 from Neil Broom and a half-century from Billy Godleman helped Derbyshire set Leicestershire 261, but rain stopped play two balls into the Foxes reply and there was no result.

Billy Godleman hit 66, before Broom fell just 10 runs short of a century as Derbyshire posted 260-6.

But only two balls of the Leicestershire chase were bowled before rain stopped play and no result was possible.

DERBYSHIRE County Cricket Club List A Tour Match

Derbyshire v Sri Lanka A Sri Lanka A won by 7 wickets The 3aaa County Ground, Derby 15 July 2016

Toss: Sri Lanka A won the toss and decided to field
Umpires: NGB Cook, CM Watts

Charlie Macdonnell

An impressive century by Ben Slater was the highlight for Derbyshire, but it wasn't enough for the home side to secure victory over Sri Lanka A at The 3aaa County Ground.

Slater's century - in addition to 44 by fellow Derbyshire-born batsman Tom Wood - helped Derbyshire post 281-7 their 43 overs, after rain had delayed the start to the match.

In reply, Sri Lanka A made light work of their target with openers Niroshan Dickwella and Dhananjaya de Silva scoring quick-fire innings worth 67 and 119, as the visitors reached their target inside 33 overs.

Slater and skipper Wes Durston got their side off to a good start by adding 67 for the first wicket, including a half-century stand in six overs until the former was out for 32.

Then came a spell of bowling for Dilanka Sandakan which saw him take five wickets for the visiting team.

Charlie Macdonnell, making his first-team debut, put on 19 to take Derbyshire to 141-3 when he was dismissed.

Also making his debut for the Club was Wood, who played a number of impressive shots on his way to scoring 44 during a 87-run stand with Slater.

Before Wood was Sandakan's third victim, Slater got through to his second List A century, his second in as many completed fixtures, having faced 105 balls, as Derbyshire posted 281-7 off their 50 overs. Sandakan was the pick of the bowlers claiming 5-40.

Sri Lanka made a stunning start, with Dananjaya de Silva and Niroshan Dickwella sharing a century opening stand in just 10 overs. The pair continued to lay siege to the Derbyshire attack, before Dickwella was stumped by Harvey Hosein off the bowling of Durston (1-37). The Sri Lankan had faced 47 balls and scored 67.

The loss of his partner, with whom he shared a 161-run stand, did not faze de Silva who also scored heavily leading to his century from just 70 balls. He would, however, fall on 119 when he attempted a ramp to the bowling of Ben Cotton (1-50), caught down at fine-leg by Hughes.

Sri Lanka A would lose just one more wicket, Greg Cork taking Mahela Udawatte (22) lbw, leaving Rajapaksa (48 not out) and Priyanjan (9 not out) to lead the visitors to 284-3 and seven-wicket win.
